Once Saved Always Saved- The Hyper-Grace Message

Is there a change between the Old Testament and the New Testament? Is this even possible?

(Mal 3:6) For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

If God changed this verse says we would be consumed. Furthermore, let us continue on with a verse in the Bible that says we are not under the law but under grace. We have several but is this what the Bible is really saying: let's look at these verses.

(Rom 4:16) Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

(Rom 6:14) For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

(Rom 6:15) What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

(Gal 2:21) I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

When was the change to grace made then? Perhaps when Jesus was born or maybe when he returned from the grave. Did things change when the last book of the Old Testament was penned, and was that Malachi or Maccabees? Looking at Romans 4:16 was there no faith in the Old Testament.

(Hab 2:4) Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

Grace is mentioned 39 times in the Old Testament and 131 times in the New Testament. What about mercy? Mercy is found in the King James OT 217 times and 59 times in the NT. Does this conclude there is no grace or mercy in the Old Testament; no but rather grace and mercy is found a lot in the OT. What about calling upon the name of the LORD in the Old Testament?

(Joe 2:32) And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

Acts 2 repeats this verse and what about Romans 10:9 and 10:13. My ears aren't being tickled by a strong argument for grace only in the New Testament. So lets say we call upon the LORD like the Bible speaks of; then what?

(2Ti 2:19) Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

Should we go on sinning?

(Rom 6:15) What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

If grace were a license to sin then what do we do with the following verse?

(Jud 1:4) For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

If grace were free then why does the Bible mention works with it?

(Eph 2:8) For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

(Eph 2:9) Not of works, lest any man should boast.

(Eph 2:10) For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

(Tit 3:5) Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

(Tit 3:6) Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

(Tit 3:7) That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

(Tit 3:8) This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

I've never seen a salvation card with Ephesians 2:10 on it and why; because there is an agenda. If we push hyper-grace, we can entertain folks and could that lead to more tithes? I will answer that question myself. I have a strong online presence with my sites but I get no where because I preach truth that a person is not easily saved. I have received zero donations over a period of almost 13 years of being in the world wide web. No one likes the sites, no comments, no forwarding or anything else. Truth will not get you far in the Christian world, therefore no one speaks it. It is important because you can lose your salvation and end up in hell, and a lot of great intentions will get you there. Truth got prophets rejected and killed. They did the same with Jesus the Son of God. We don't like truth because we want comfortable because we like the cross with pads.

(Php 2:12) Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

(1Pe 4:18) And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

We will appear in hell or a complete blotting out of existence that Jeremiah calls a perpetual sleep.

(Jer 51:39) In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

(Jer 51:57) And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

Am I a liar because I say heaven is a narrow road and that both hell and death exist? Paul must be because my next quotes are from him.

(Gal 6:7) Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

(2Co 9:6) But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

Is it possible to lose your salvation? I think so and so did the Apostle Paul.

(Heb 6:4) For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

(Heb 6:5) And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

(Heb 6:6) If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

(Heb 6:7) For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

(Heb 6:8) But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

(Heb 10:26) For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

(Heb 10:27) But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

(Heb 10:28) He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

(Heb 10:29) Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

(Heb 10:30) For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.

(Heb 10:31) It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

These above verses are self-explanatory.

(1Co 6:9) Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, (1Co 6:10) Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

(1Co 6:11) And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

(Rev 21:7) He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

(Rev 21:8) But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

These words in red were straight out of Jesus mouth. Maybe he is a liar too? Does Satan believe in God. Oh Yeah! Will he be saved so we can have Satan in heaven with us? Maybe we need to do what Bill Johnson and blot out the Old Testament outside of Songs of Solomon, Psalms and Proverbs. We need to wash the Bible clean. Burn all our ancient Bibles including the King James. Sure, put God in a box you can dress his head with a turban just like Zechariah 3 in the New King James. We can defeat each destroying creature in Joel 2:25 by calling them all locusts in the NKJV. We can erase hell because it is scary and not politically correct and call it sheol or hades. The NKJV does that too. I'm already not accepted in another church because I mentioned works in front of the church. I deal with truth so you decide what you want to do with me. I won't come back if that is what you want. God wants us to get out of our comfortable recliner and read the Bible.

(Hos 4:6) My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

I could go on and on but I just paid over $70 for a little bit of liquid gold ink. If I make this too long it will not be read or as I fully expect this to be thrown in the trash. I just like to leave a little argument after being told not to return. Even if I'm not right the King James Bible isn't lying. Maybe I should get an NIV or a NLT, perhaps a NASB or Passion Bible. Maybe I should just walk out and never return. Shall I be crucified, or stoned or just told to sit in a corner and keep silent.

I love God and I love you, but I also realize we chose our ways and by the way I'm no saint either. I worry about my salvation so much I only trust the following verse to save me:

(Pro 10:12) Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins.

I fear God and I wonder where I will spend eternity. I know a lot because I prayed for wisdom in the midst of insanity. I know the truth and it is my responsibility.

(Eze 33:6) But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

Years ago, I received the following verse in a dream.

(Eze 33:3) If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

I have a choice; I choose to open my mouth and speak when I see people that are blatantly wrong about salvation and are not telling the truth about it.

(Gal 1:10) For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

I think salvation is more than a trivial thing, but a place of truth. Yes, we all need a good word and so do I but not if it puts God into a box and compromises what the Bible is really saying. I've been told by a family member not to create problems, but I am a Christian and I take God seriously, even though I still have my own pet sins. When we look at the kings of old it is easy to see they were in the wrong, but I think we tend to overlook the truth and yes truth matters.

Truth hung on a tree.

Truth died to make you free.

Truth took nails and beatings for you.

Truth warns others of the things that we do.

Truth was wiped and beaten truth carried your load.

Truth didn't come in a Ferrari but a donkey he rode.

Truth warns when the sky grows dark.

Truth is in Jesus that never missed the mark.

Truth may require work and diligence to see.

Truth is the way the truth and life to set sinners free.

Did Stalin & Hitler still have a chance???

What about the demon men Brock Dale Bernstein and Todd Jessie Garton?

*can you be saved if you live the vilest of lives, up to the day of your death and call on the LORD. The answer is flat out NO, NO, NO!!! It ain't happenin!!!
God isn't mocked!*

(Gal 6:7) Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

(Pro 1:24) Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

(Pro 1:25) But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:

(Pro 1:26) I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;

(Pro 1:27) When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.

(Pro 1:28) Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:

(Pro 1:29) For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD:

(Pro 1:30) They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.

(Pro 1:31) Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

(Isa 55:6) Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

(Isa 55:7) Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Read carefully the above verses. You can't always wait till your death bed and call on Jesus name. Some have and some will be saved but not all. God wants you to think now before the knife is in your back and your bleeding to death. Take God serious at his Word! DON'T WAIT TILL THE LAST POSSIBLE SECOND OR CHANCES ARE YOU WON'T BE SAVED!!!
